

FABRICATOR MILLWRIGHT JOB DESCRIPTION

RENDEQ INC.
FAITHFULLY UPCYCLING SINCE 2003

JUNE 10, 2021

Rendeq has been faithfully upcycling since 2003. You will not find a group of more experienced kind people in any office anywhere. We make the equipment that lets industry conserve and waste not. And then we make sure those manufacturing facilities stay up and running. It's a joy to come to work everyday and know that the work we are doing matters -- to the people at Rendeq, to the people in our community, and to the humans that live on the only planet we have.

We are manufacturers, installers and service experts of industrial processing equipment for the protein upcycling industry. Our equipment is also used by the pharmaceutical, feed, mill-work, agriculture, vegetable and pet food industries. At RENDEQ, we understand the critical and stringent operational requirements of our clients, and so service and install teams can spend some time on-call. We work side by side with plant operations personnel to supply new or used equipment, install that equipment, and then ultimately service that equipment.

RENDEQ is seeking Experienced Fabricator-Millwrights to work with our clients at their facilities, installing and servicing Rendeq equipment.

We offer competitive wages, as well as many great perks of working with Rendeq. Apply now and become part of a great company with an even better culture!
